TEXAS A&M HEALTH Prevention & Population Health

Graduate Assistantship Application

Thank you for your interest in joining the Prevention & Population Health team at University Health Services! This position provides a unique opportunity to support the health and well-being of Texas A&M students through education, data-driven programming, and outreach initiatives. Please complete the following application to be considered for the role.

Full Name:

Texas A&M Email Address:

Phone Number:

UIN:

Degree Program & Department:

Current GPA:

Expected Graduation Date:

Have you ever been on conduct probation, suspension, academic probation, or have you been convicted of any violation of local, state, or federal law, other than minor traffic violations? Yes or No

If you answered "Yes" above, please provide a brief explanation below.

Are you currently enrolled as a graduate student at Texas A&M? Yes or No

How many hours are you currently enrolled?

Student Services Building 471 Houston St. College Station, TX 77843

Tel. 979.458.4584 Fax 979.862.4383 Email uhsprevpop@tamu.edu uhs.tamu.edu Will you be available to work 20 hours per week? Yes or No

If not, how many hours can you work?

When would you be available to start?

Do you have any current assistantships or employment at Texas A&M? Yes or No

If so, please list.

Describe your background and experience related to public health, education, research, and/or student engagement.

How do your career goals align with the mission and vision of University Health Services?

How comfortable are you with Outreach and Engagement with the student population?

Please attach the following items, along with the completed application, to the Prevention & Population Health email address.

Resume (required)

Cover Letter (Optional, but recommended)

_____ (initial here) By submitting this application, I certify that the information provided is accurate and truthful. I understand that this position is a professional commitment and agree to adhere to the expectations set forth by University Health Services.